20-MICHAEL'S TOWN

I live in a small town, Tornton, not far from Manchester. There is not much to do here for young people but I like it because I have a lot of friends and we find something to do together.

There is a shopping centre, a bank, a post office, a church and some schools. There is also a good bus service, a swimming pool, a park and a library. If you wish to spend an evening out, there are some good pubs and a cinema. There are also a few good restaurants but there are no discos and no theatres.

If you want to go to the disco you can drive to Manchester which is only 30 km away. Manchester is a big city and you can find everything you want there: cinemas, restaurants, pubs, theatres, museums and sports centres.

1. Where does Michael live?
2. Where is his town situated?
3. Has Michael got a lot of friends or few friends?
4. What has his town got?
5. Is there a disco?

6. Is there much to do in Tornton?
